HAPPY

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Message from Sreekanth Sir

Dear Students,

As per my understanding and research on the academic abilities of students, I strongly believe and came to a conclusion that all the students have equal potential, but they are not equally serious about studies.

The degree of seriousness directly influences the program and performance of the individuals. The one who channelizes one's all energies towards a fixed goal, will definitely get success.

A strong mind with healthy life style also plays a crucial role in one's journey during the education. Hence maintain the strength both physical and mental.

Article on PM Modi's Independence day Speech

On the honor of India's 75th Independence day, the Prime minister, Narendra Modi, spoke to the nation on Monday from the historic Red Fort. Prior to delivering a speech to the nation at the Red Fort in Delhi on the occasion of Independence Day, the Prime Minister paid homage to Mahatma Gandhi at Rajghat. On this historic day, he also raised the national flag of India. In his speech to the nation, PM Modi congratulated all Indians on their country's independence and added that today is a day to move in a new direction with fresh commitment.

Here are the key points from his address to the nation:

Tribute to Freedom Fighters

Throughout the years of our freedom struggle, our freedom warriors never went a day without experiencing brutality and cruelty. We must keep in our mind that their desire and vision for India today as we pay our respects to them.

Our nation is indebted to Gandhiji, Bhagat Singh, Rajguru, Ramprasad Bismil, Ashfaqullah Khan, Rani Laxmi Bai, Subash Chandra Bose, Tatya Tope, and many other liberation warriors who shook the British Empire to its very core.

Freedom Fighters from the adivasi community such as Birsa Munda, Tirot Singh, & the Alluri Sitarama Raju, were crucial in sustaining the fight for independence throughout India.

The Nation is honoring individual who gave sacrifices but were overloaded or denied their just rewards.

India Birthplace of Democracy

As we commemorate azadi ka amrit Mahotsav, we should also give thanks to police, military, & most importantly, every citizen who overcome obstacles to advance the goal of a new India. India is where democracy first emerged. Our Country has demonstrated that we possess an innate strength that derives from our variety & the unifying quality of patriotism that makes India unbreakable.

India's 'Techade'

Finally, India's "techade" has arrived. We are bringing the revolution to the people through digital India by manufacturing chips from SG, with the creation of semiconductors, 5G, and optical fibre, the digital movement is showing strength in education, health and life transformation for the average person.

Bal Gangadhar Tilak

Bal Gangadhar Tilak born Keshav Gangadhar Tilak 23 July 1856 Ratnagiri district, Bombay presidency, British India ( Present Maharashtra, India ) to 1 August 1920 (aged 64) Bombay, Bombay presidency, British India ( present day Mumbai, Maharashtra, India ) , endeared as Lokmanya, was an Indian nationalist, teacher and an independence activist. He was one third of the Lal Bal Pal triumvirate.

Tilak was the first leader of the Indian independence movement. The British colonial authorities called him "The Father Of The Indian Unrest". He was also conferred with the title of "Lokmanya", which means "Accepted by the people as their leader". Mahatma Gandhi called him " The Maker Of Modern India ".

Tilak was one of the first and strongest advocates of Swaraj (self-rule) and a strong radical in India consciousness. He is known for his quote in Marathi " Swaraj is my birth right and I shall have it !". He formed a close alliance with many Indian national Congress leaders including Bipin Chandra Paul, Lala Lajpat Rai, Aurobindo Ghose, V.O. Chidambaram Pillai and Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

Jumping Into The Freedom Cause

Tilak founded the Marathi Daily Kesari ( lion) in 1880. in just two years 'Kesari' attracted more readers then any language news paper in India. The editorials gave a vivid pictured of the people's suffering and of actual happenings. they called upon every Indian to fight for his right. This was the objective that motivated Tilak and in what was reflected allegorically in the motto chosen by tilak for the kesari.

Tilak joined the indian national congress in the 1890's, but soon fall into opposite of it's libreal moderate attitude toward the fight for self government. As he matured as a national leader, he become all too aware of the importance of Hindu. Muslims unity in the freedom movement. As early as 1893, Tilak had become conscious of how conflicts between Hindus and Muslims came about at the instigation of Anglo-Indian officers in the colonial administration. He was not oblivious to the 'Divide and Rule' policy of the colonial administrations and knew how detrimental that was to the cause of freedom.

In 1980, there were few leaders (Hindus, Muslims or Sikh) of comparable stature in the Indian freedom movement and in several ways Tilak's ideas remain far ahead of Gandhi's. Any lover of Indian freedom and progress would have to be cognizant of that. Tilak's writing on non violence are especially revealing of an advanced intellect.

Tilak was neither a gun fetishist nor an idealist rejecter of violence. In 1908, he saw non violent resistance through mass civil disobedience as the preferred method of struggle only because he did not see the possibilities of winning on armed struggle against the British at the particular time.

But neither did he reject the possibility that a time may come when the Indian masses would be able ready and prepared for an armed struggle, if no other option of defeating the British seemed likely to succeed. For that reason, he was never prepared to condemn the armed revolutionaries and defended each one as a legitimate fighter and martyr in the cause of Indian independence.

Iron Man Of India Sardar Vallabhai Patel

Sardar Vallabhai Patel's "Iron man of Bharat" birthday is celebrated as national unity day of 31st October. This man was the reason for Bharat not falling apart into pieces. The story begins when British left us with 562 princely states. Thinking Bharat will fall apart quite soon. And these princely states had only few options. But Patel ji's strongly determined to bring them back to India. He has done many sacrifices in order to do so. One of the sacrifice was he took back nomination from being first PM of Bharat, even though he got most number of votes compared to Nehruji. Later for his country he put aside his ego, fancy collabed with V.P.Menon (his colleague) and went across India to each and every king to convince them to be a part of Bharat as a normal citizen. In return he offered security, Foreign affairs and communication. He faced many issues with many kings but never stopped. He also helped to stop the merging of entire Rajasthan into Pakistan. He also arranged operation 'polo' in order to defeat nawab of Hyderabad. and make Hyderabad out of India. Such a great man with full determination of seeing united Bharat, passed away without witnessing it. Now it's our duty to keep his story and spirit of patriotism alive. Salute to Sardar Vallabhai Patel
